Nineteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

August 7, 2022

Dear Friends,

A special welcome to our new parish secretary Jennifer Morgan! She has hit the ground running and there is so much to learn and get to know. The most important thing to know is – you! Please feel free to drop by or give a call and introduce yourself because far more important than knowing safe combinations, the ministry pro parish database, and where the paper towels are stored; is getting to know you, the parishioners. This is why we are all here on staff: to serve you and help you any way we can. Of course, the greatest way we can ever assist anyone is to help them to know and love Jesus. Let us all as a pastorate continue to pray for each other and get to know each other as together we grow in our relationship with Jesus Christ.

One benefit of hiring a new person is it gives us a chance to see with fresh eyes all the different ways we do things around here. I think over the next few months or so you might see some changes in everything from our bulletin to our Flocknote. We are also going to take some time at staff to look over all the many policies and procedures we have in place from everything to scheduling a baptism to hall rentals. We will keep you informed of any changes. Thank you so much, each of you are the true treasure of our pastorate!

God Bless,

Fr. Matt

p.s. Stay tuned for some exciting news about new plans for our Convent Building!
